

Our History

The Military & Health Research Foundation (MHRF) is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit, committed to discovering and transitioning lasting solutions for troops on the battlefield and across all civilian healthcare settings.

By collaborating with end users, military investigators, academic organizations, and private industry partners, we help make innovative life-saving technologies readily available when needs arise.

"Turning
Possibilities Into Realities"

Our Services

Research & Development

- Proof of concept development
- FDA planning & guidance
- Prototyping & testing
- Commercialization & licensing
- Team building & coordination

Partner Support

- Identify funding opportunities
- Proposal lifecycle support
- Project management & staffing
- Animal research laboratory

Primary NAICS: 541715
UEI: MJC3BNKHH1D5
Cage: 6MX37

Military & Health Research Foundation

Dedicated to the Advancement of Military Health
Technology and Medical Research

Selected Contract Vehicles

The Military & Health Research Foundation (MHRF) is an Omnibus IV indefinite delivery, indefinite quantity (IDIQ) awardee. The contract is a 10-year $10B vehicles available to all DoD contracting officers. MHRF was awarded all four market segments:

- Research & Development (R&D)
- R&D Support Services
- Regulatory Processes
- Translational Science Support & Services

MHRF offers the Department of Defense vast research, project execution, and staffing capabilities at competitive rates.

Contact MHRFToday

Ramsey Taweel, President
rtaweel@usmhrf.org
240-417-0417

Follow Us On Social Media

Facebook:

@MilitaryandHealthResearchFoundation

LinkedIn:

@Military & Health Research Foundation

X:

@HealthMilitary

Sample Research Projects

Endovascular Variable Aortic Control Device (EVAC)

VentRight: Portable Ventilation Monitoring Optimizing Critical Care

Endovascular Perfusion Augmentation for Critical Care (EPACC)

The Vascular Shunt

